

ALTERNATE TYPES OF COLLEGE CREDIT

Full details can be found in Policy 3.35.1 "Credit for Prior Learning –Procedure"

<http://explore.lsc.edu/policies/Chapter3/Procedure3351.pdf>

Credit by examination.

Credit by examination is a test method that determines a student has the knowledge gained in a specific course.

Credit for prior learning (CPL)

Credit for prior learning is earned by assessing knowledge gained through experience.

CLEP (College Level Examination Program)

CLEP is a testing program of The College Board designed to measure prior learning and mastery of introductory (lower division) college course material in particular

DSST (DANTES Subject Standardized Tests)

DSST is a testing program of Prometric designed to measure prior learning in a variety of disciplines with 37 unique subjects.

Advanced Placement

Advanced Placement is a program of The College Board through which a secondary student completes college-level courses that are designated as AP in high schools.

(International Baccalaureate Diploma)

The IB program is an internationally recognized program through which a secondary student completes a comprehensive curriculum of rigorous study and demonstrates performance on IB examinations.

Educational Credit for Training Programs and Nationally Recognized Tests

Lake Superior College may accept credit for the following training and national tests:

Military Training. Credit will be evaluated from the student's military documents using the "ACE Guide to the Evaluation of Experiences in the Armed Forces." (Minnesota Statute 197.775, Subdivision 2, Higher Education Fairness).

Business Training. Credit will be evaluated using the ACE College Credit Recommendation.

Association of Administrative Professionals. Credit will be evaluated for successful completion of the CAP (Certified Administrative Professional) examination in the past seven years.

Thomas Edison College Examination Program (TECEP)

Excelsior Examinations

New York University Foreign Language Proficiency (NYUFLP)

National Occupational Competency Testing Institute (NOCTI)